September, XXI (1986), Office of the Chronicler of the Outlands

From the Crown

Greetings unto the good people of the Outlands!

These will be our last words as King and Queen of the Outlands. We have been pleased to serve you these past seven months, but look forward to the furtherance of our culture and traditions as Their Royal Highnesses, Artan and Tara, ascend the Thrones. We wish them both good tidings and a long and prosperous reign.

We would first like to thank all of you who have housed us, fed us, and provided us with moral support; also thanks for the numerous gifts and tokens of your support given both to ourselves and the Kingdom. We'd like to thank those who have sewn banners, tabards, and other items for the Crown. A special thanks to those who have been our scribes and calligraphers -- your works only go to show that the arts in our Kingdom do indeed flourish.

Thanks also to those who have provided the Crown and Kingdom with regalia -- thrones, crowns, banners, signet rings, scepters, award medallions, etc. We have truly enjoyed serving the Outlands and appreciate all the support that was given to our various projects. Please continue to support your Kingdom in future reigns.

We have travelled several times, visiting both our neighbors to the west and the east. We thank also the good peoples of Atenveldt and Ansteorra for receiving us as friends and allies during our stays away from home. With this in mind, we would like to attend to one final piece of business. Our Kingdom policy as far as travel reimbursement for out-of-Kingdom events is "no funds provided." We would like to start a special fund for future reigns to attend at least interkingdom events in faraway lands. We will be starting to ask for funds at Outlandish, but please continue to support your Kingdom by mailing your contributions to this special fund to "Send the Crown to Pennsic" -- and Estrella Wars, and possibly the Calontir/Ansteorra Interkingdom Peace (this fund will only be used to ensure our Crown's travel to major interkingdom events). It is important to create a good rapport with other kingdoms and, hopefully, we will make lasting impressions on other areas so that they might wish to visit our Kingdom as well.

We will be releasing our retainers of their service at Coronation. Those who have served us in this capacity have served well and have presented themselves as honorable gentlemen (and woman!) and we have felt no shame from having them stand with us both at Court and in battle. Thank you for that special service only true friends and comrades can provide -- it made the time we had as King and Queen even better to have you there to share it with us: Sir Hagen Silverskull, King's Champion; Sir Artan, Queen's Champion; Lord Bertrand, Lady Regina, Lord Haakan, Queen's Guard; Lord Cathyn, Captain of the King's Guard -- and all the many others who fought by their sides at the Estrella Wars; Lady Tara, Queen's Herald; Lord Ark, Arts & Sciences Champion, and Lord Bertrand, Lord Marcus and Lord Johann for serving as the Crown's charioteers upon occasion.

We have thoroughly enjoyed ourselves in spite of some unforeseen hassles. Please serve our successors as you have served us and we will be guaranteed that the Outlands will flourish for many, many years to come.

Having found our heirs and find them able to carry on, we are proud to retire as

Johann & Kathyrn

King and Queen of the Outlands

Thank you to Beatrix, Bertrand, Hagen, Adrianne, Geyla, Coriander, Tara, Artan, Cathyn, Chataigne, Eric, Lairiel, Monika, Jochen, Giovanni, Starfire, Laurel, Marcus, Johann, Greyraven, Stefan, Dorinda, Hieronymus, Quiet Press staff, Simonetta, Mikel, Kendra, Elenore, Lance Lyttle, Dennis, Aleron, Suzanna, Renna, Genevre, Selene, Aelflaed, Elinor, Vyrden, and all the many others we have surely forgotten.

From the Earl Marshal

Unto the populace of the kingdom of the Outlands, Duke Sir Christopher of Hoghton sends, Greetings!

First of all, I wish to thank Sir Jochen von Balduinseck for his service as marshal for both the principality and the Kingdom of the Outlands. He has well served the Outlands and deserves much praise.

My primary goals as kingdom marshal are to establish and fine tune the new authorization system as established by the corporate marshal. The corporate marshal has been greatly pleased by the work done this far, and I feel that we can further improve the authorization system.

Although the primary duty of the marshal is safety. I also feel that improving the overall skill level of the fighters in the Outlands is very important. To this end, I hope to have four fighting schools a year in conjunction with the kingdom quarter courts. I hope to use the quarter courts to discuss the need for new kingdom standards and conventions, as well as any way to improve fighting in our kingdom. If you have any suggestions for topics to be discussed at the upcoming Quarter Court, please contact me, Earl Sir Mika Longbow, or the crown's designate (yet to be chosen).

I encourage all marshals to write me and establish communication. I have a number of ideas I wish to discuss.

In service to the aims and ideals of the SCA,

Duke Sir Christopher of Hoghton

Submitting Your Heraldic Device

The Kingdom and local area line on the device submission form should be easy enough, but let me say a few words on the blazon. The whole purpose of a blazon is to give a description of your device that is accurate enough that a heraldic artist who has never seen it before can draw it close enough to be recognizable by you. For this reason, we ask you to put your blazon in pencil. If you cannot come up with the blazon yourself, your local herald should be able to help you. However, there is almost always more than one way to blazon a device. One of the things that is done in the College of Heralds meeting is to blazon the device without reading the line. This is done by one or more heralds who then discuss the blazon. When we have agreed on the clearest, most concise wording, then that is what is sent on to Laurel. So, don't be surprised if your official blazon comes back different from the one you sent in.

The last line is for acceptable changes. This is another time-saving line. A device must differ from all other devices by at least two major points of difference. While it would be much too difficult to go into all points of difference here, a few of the easier ones include a change of tincture (color), a change of metal, change of a major element, addition or deletion of a bordure, or line of divison. Your local herald should be able to help you figure out what all this means.

If you take some time to sit down with your local herald, they can sometimes suggest changes to make. For example: You have talked to the herald and she says your device might pass as it is but might conflict with another. Her advice is to add a bordure for another point of difference. You like the looks of your device as it is, but you want the best possible chances of your device passing on the first try. So, you turn your device in as it is and under acceptable changes, put the addition of a bordure if necessary. When the device comes up in the meeting, it will be conflict checked just as it is drawn. Then, if it is necessary, the possible alternatives will be gone over one by one.

In this way, if there are some alternatives to work with, it increases our chances of getting a device that you like and can live with registered for you.

Above all, do not despair. I know that horror stories abound out there about trying to register a name and device, but if you will take some time to sit down with a competent herald and discuss your device before you turn it in, I think you will be pleasantly surprised to find out that an acceptable device with good chances of passing on the first try can almost always be found. (About 80% of the devices that were submitted at the AS XIX Outlandish consultation table passed the first try.)

We try to have several consultation tables set up throughout the year at big events. However, even if there is not a specific table, a non-busy herald (this is one who is not rushing about, dressed in green, with a staff, clutching a handful of paper and muttering madly to themselves) who has her books can usually be conned into spending some time with you.

One final note, if you are curious about where your device has gone, you will get much better and quicker response if you send an inquiry to the White Stag Herald in writing. Asking him in person while he is rushing past clutching a handful of notes and muttering madly to himself, or sending a message through a third party will rarely get you anything but frustration and resentment. Chances are quite good that your message did not get through or get remembered. One in writing can be dealt with as soon as time permits a proper response.

I sincerely hope that his paper will help you in filling out your forms and having a more pleasant encounter with the College of Heralds in general

I would like to thank those of you who have come up to me and told me that this article has helped you to submit a device. It does appear that more communication is needed between the CoH and the populace. I would like to do what little I can to help. If you have a question about heraldry that your local officer can't answer, or would like to know more about a specific area, send me a letter and I will try to get an answer for you.

I apologize for the delay in the ending of this article. I got involved in other things the last couple of months, but I am pleased to announce that on May 3rd, at 9:30 I gave birth to a 6 lb., 6 oz. baby boy. His name is Michael Allen, and daddy and sister are dooing fine.

If you wish a copy of all four parts of this article, plaease send a SASE to: Lady Elinor du Pont

High Altitude Tournament, Quest

Come drink in the beauty of 10,000 feet at the High Altitude Quest, June 19-21, AS XXII.

The High Altitude Quest will be held in the same place as last year (See map). If you were not there last year, follow the map.

From al-Barran, drive north on I-25 to Santa Fe, then north on US 285 to Espanola. Continue toward Dixon, taking the Dixon/Sipapu turnoff, putting you on SR 75, to SR 3 to Sipapu Ski Lodge. From the lodge, the site is approximately 14 miles.

From Caerthe, follow I-25 south to Las Vegas (NM), then head for Mora on SR 3. Or, at Watrous, take US 161 to Mora, and follow SR 3 up to Holman Hill. On top of this hill is the road to the site, on the left. PLEASE WATCH FOR SIGNS.

The roads off the highway are mountain roads and can be rough. When you come to the upaved roads, BE AWARE of gates. They must be closed after passing through (or the cows get loose). We will have gate guards most of the time.

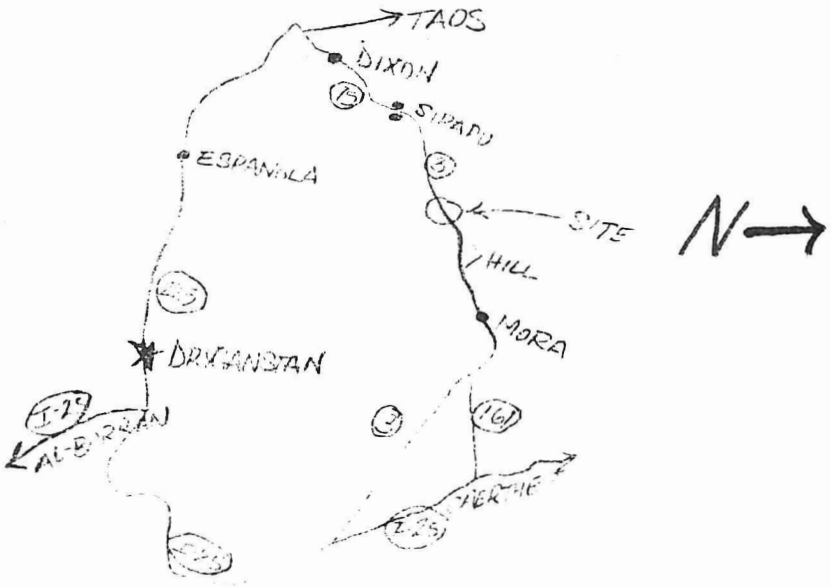
This is private land, and pit fires will be at the autocrats' discretion. We wish you to bring private cooking grills or hibachis, if possible. Also remember you won't need much alcohol due to the elevation. Please bring your own drinking water.

There will be a $2.50 site fee for the weekend, and a $.50 fee for the Sunday Tourney/Woods Battle. If you have any further questions, contact the site autocrat Lady Lynna von Drachenberg at 505-982-8832 or 989-9380.

AND NOW FOR THE QUEST ...

Let us begin with a few general items about the event.

A schedule of the weekend's events will be posted in the commons area. Here will be found all the pertinent information about the times for events -- quest, feast and bardic, as well as the Sunday Tourney and Woods Battle -- and who to contact if you are interested in any of those activities.



As a reminder to those who braved last year's High Altitude and a warning to those yet untried, please wear OLD clothes for the quest. It may prove to be a "dirty" event! There is mud and muck, so please wear something you're not going to be afraid to soil. So that everyone may safely participate in the quest, BOFFERS will be the only weapons allowed. And, finally, as always, courtesy counts. Be courteous and the more fun ... and points will be accrued by both you and your team.

As for the quest, the teams may have up to seven adventurers, but must have at least five. These questers will be: a fighter, a scribe, a healer, a thief and a ranger are optional players and you can distribute the roles the way that you feel will give your group the greatest advantage. Each of these adventurers' roles and how they gain points will be explained just prior to the quest itself. But, as always, if there are any questions any of the autocrats will be available to help.

Here is an example. A fighter gains points by successfully winning a combat with a foe met upon the way. Two points will be awarded for a victory, one subtracted for a defeat, and two points will be subtracted for running away from a battle once it has been engaged. This is just an example. There will be referrees to judge fair contest, to keep score of a team's progress and to keep the running tally. They will also keep the teams aware of areas to be avoided for safety reasons -- fences, rocks and the Swamp! The Swamp is off limits except where specified.

Once again, here are some last minute reminders about High Altitude. There is a potluck feast scheduled before the bardic. If you are interested in the feast or the bardic, please contact Freydis Unraed at the number below. If you plan to fight in Sunday's Tourney, you must do something at the bardic -- be creative. If you have the wood and the space, please bring a few extra pieces for the bardic; this will be greatly appreciated! Firepits are allowed, but must be approved by the autocrats. This is private land, so respect it as you would your own. And, come have fun at the High Altitude Quest and Tourney!

If you have any questions, please call the autocrats.

Lynna von Drachenberg (Randy Mills), 505-982-8832 or 989-9380.

Freydis Unraed (Marta Reinhold), 505-292-6340.

A&S College Planned

ATTENTION
ARTS&SCIENCES PERSONS
(and all concerned people)

Upcoming this late summer/early autumn there will be a kingdom-level college. At present, the site and exact date are undetermined. However, in order for this to be a successful and representative event, planning must proceed.

What is needed from you, the populace, is input.

Is there a specific class/area of interest you'd like to see?

If you have been to other colleges, was ther something you specifically liked? disliked?

Would you be willing to teach a class in your area of knowledge? what area?

Have you suggestions, interest, surplus energy or material you'd like to donate to this cause?

This event can only be as good as those people who participate. I will serve as an organizer for those of you interested in sharing your skills, knowledge and expertise. I know there is a wealth of talent in this kingdom; I have seen it. Please contact me with your ideas and input.

In Service to the Outlands,
Lord Patrick the Lost
Deputy, Arts&Sciences
c/o Patrick Thompson, 3661 W. Union Ave., Denver CO 80236, 303-797-3458.

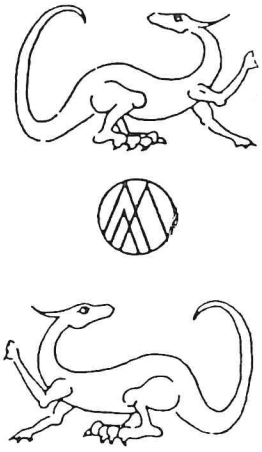
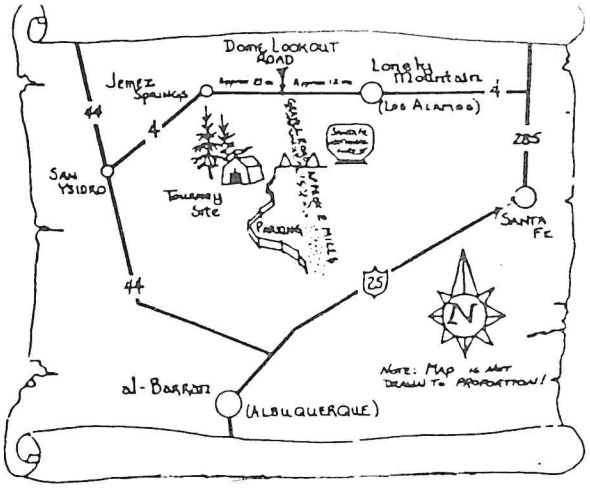
GAMES





Come one, come all! For a relaxing weekend of fun and frivolity in the lush meadow and whispering pines of the old Defender site.

The Shire of Anlieplic Dun is proud to host a games event on the last weekend of July. Alas, because of the high quality of our defenders, we are no longer threatened by dragons. In fact, we are suffering a severe shortage of them! We need a defender and companion for our beleaguered dragons! This job will not be easy. It will require a master gamesman with nimble feet and a cunning mind. Remember, it's not a job -- it's an adventure!! To qualify for this position, the candidate must compete in a variety of games and contests. He/She need not participate in all the contests available but can choose from several games, including (but not limited to) a quest, archery, axe-throwing, "hunkerhausen," rock, fox and geese, backgammon, chess, toasting, telling tall and dragon tales, the "Secret Game" (surprise!), Byzantine Tag (more about that next month), and more. There will be a feast, hugging auction and barding on Saturday night.

Because the site is in the mountains, be prepared for cold and possibly rainy weather. Fires may or may not be permitted, depending on weather conditions and dryness (if they are permitted, they must be attended). We will be having quiet hours from midnight to 8 a.m. and during the barding. There will be a feast at about 5:30 on Saturday night, and we will be taking 75 reservations. Feast reservations should be sent to the feast autocrat by July 18. The site is wet.

If you have an idea for a game, or games, that you feel a dragon's companion should know, please let the autocrats know at least two weeks in advance, and we will try to include it.

Site fee: $5 per person for the whole weekend; smalls under 12 free (can be paid in advance or at the site).

Feast fee: $6.50 per person; send reservations in by July 18.

Checks: Checks should be payable to "The Shire of Anlieplic Dun" and sent to William the Hermit.

EVENT AUTOCRATS: William the Hermit and Maria del Gato, P.O. Box 926, Los Alamos NM, 505-672-9276.

FEAST AUTOCRATS: Mistress Julia of the Forest, 3153 Villa St., Los Alamos NM 87544, 505-662-3942.

Maria del Gato, address above.

3 Hawks

Watch the fighters hack and slash, and see the fencers prove a point. End the day with a feathery flight at the Three Hawks Champion Tournament.

The incipient Canton of Hawk's Hollow invites one and all to join us on August 15 and 16 for our grand event. The site is located on the beautiful grounds of Camp Genesee, just half an hour west of Denver on I-70. The site fee is $2 per person for the weekend (this is a camping event), and the site opens at 6 p.m. Friday. This is a discreetly wet site. No pets allowed.

On Saturday at 11 a.m. we begin our tourney with rattan fighting, which will be followed by fencing. We will end the day with archery. This tourney is not only an individual, but also a team competition. On Saturday morning, before the fighting begins, we will draw teams of three (a fighter, a fencer and an archer). Each person will compete in their individual event with their score to be added to their teammates' scores for a team total. In the evening, one person from each team will perform at the bardic. The team with the best score will become the Hawk's Hollow Champions. You need not be a team member to compete for the prizes to be given in each individual competition.

If this doesn't keep you busy enough, we will also be providing a throwing board for those interested in learning how to throw a knife or showing off your skill. For the archers, an official IKAC round will be shot. We also encourage anyone interested in doing skill demos (sewing, cooking, art, etc.) to contact the autocrat to arrange for a time and place for your demo. Merchants are welcome!

We will be having a feast (menu next issue) at 6 p.m. after all of the day's events end. The feast fee is $3 per person ($1 for littles under 12).

When the light fades and darkness fills the sky, we will hold the bardic competition. One member from each team must enter the bardic, but the competition is open to anyone else who wishes to entertain us as well. There will be a prize given to the winner of each event (rattan fighting, fencing, archery and bardic) with the winning team receiving an additional prize.

On Sunday, there will be a ...? Look for more information in next month's Herald or The Fortress.

AUTOCRAT: Tambriel (Sharon Parham), 303-252-9126.

Midsummer Tourney

The College of St. Golias presents a Midsummer Tourney and Feast June 13 and 14, AS XXII (1987) at Escondita Lake. The event will begin at 9 a.m. (June 13). This is a change of date.

My lords and ladies, it is my pleasure to announce that I, Jagonam Poing d'Eclair, Lord Abbot, will hold a Midsummer's Tourney, Revel and Bardic Festival. My brother/mother Hagne Schnemachen will prepare a bountiful feast to be served on Saturday eve, about dusk.

This is Issue No. 13, June 1987, of the Outlandish Herald, the official newsletter of the Kingdom of the Outlands, and is published as a function of the SCA's mailing list. Subscriptions are $20 per year from the Office of the Registry, SCA, Inc., PO Box 360743, Milpitas CA 95035-0743. All inquiries and changes of address should be sent to the Registry. Any event announcements, calendar items, and officer lists can be copied without permission. Any arts and/or sciences articles, cartoons, other artwork, informational articles, etc., should not be copied without prior written permission from the author/artist. Copyright June 1987.

SUBMISSIONS: Articles about upcoming events, ideally, should get longer and more complete as the event nears, with the final information available no sooner than two issues before it occurs. Otherwise, due to space considerations, long articles about far future events may be held until the month prior to the event and the month of the event. Reports of events past are always welcome, but please keep them short and to the point.

The Outlandish Herald can take no responsibility for reporting events without a submitted article. Official events must be registered by use of an event form, copies of which should be submitted to the Chronicler's Office and the Office of the Kingdom Seneschal.

DEADLINE: Because material for the Outlandish Herald is currently being retyped and reformatted before publication, the deadline for ALL submissions for any given month is the 5th of the month prior to the cover date. Please try to get your submissions into the Chronicler's Office as early as possible. Thank you.

ADVERTISING RATES: Full page, $20; half page, $12; quarter page, $8. All submissions must be camera ready.

Note new deadline of the 5th of each month!
